STIPULATION

Plaintiff's and Defendant Neptune's Account, LLC, hereby stipulate through their respective counsel as follows: Plaintiff's attorney, Mark W. Lapham, is currently in settlement negotiations with Defendant Thomas Francis and his attorney, Alex Pevzner. These settlement negotiations include a settlement of all claims and motions and causes of action, including the current Motion for Attorney's fees and sanctions. As a result, Plaintiff seeks a 14 day continuance to file a reply to Defendant's motion while the Parties are attempting to settle this case. The Time for Plaintiff's to answer and respond to Defendant Neptune's Account LLC's motion for sanctions and attorney's fees originally due on the 20th of March, 2012, shall be extended by 14 days, to the

1 17th of April, 2012. Likewise, Defendant Neptune's Account LLC's time to file a reply brief shall
2 be extended 14 days until the 1st of May of April, 2012.

22 ORDER

23 The time for Plaintiff's to file an answer to Defendant Neptune's Account's motion for 24 attorney's fees and sanctions shall be extended by 14 days to the 17th of April, 2012 for Plaintiff's
25 to file an answer and the time for Defendant Neptune's Account to file a reply brief shall also be 26 extended 14 days until the 1st of May, 2012.

27 In light of the parties' representations made above, the parties shall file a notice of settlement
28 or dismissal with prejudice by no later than April 17, 2012, or if unable to do so, a status report stating that the case did not settle. This is the parties' second extension on the briefing schedule for Defendant Neptune's Account's motion. No further extensions will be granted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
